

I consider telephone calls from television and radio stations to be telemarketing. They are trying to get you to watch their show, which is their product. I do not want to receive these calls anymore that calls to sell me charge cards. Please reconsider this exemption.